PASTOR'S COLUMN

Dear People of God at Our Lord's Lutheran Church,

My eyes well up with tears as I think of the beautiful send-off you gave to me. The Open House provided a lovely evening for farewell conversations and delicious hors d'oeuvres with cake and fruit. Many thanks to everyone who set up, prepared food, and cleaned up when the evening came to an end. Everything was so tasty and beautiful. You also outdid yourselves with the generosity of your gifts to me as you departed. The congregational gifts of a windchime, personalized journal, travel mug, gift cards for my coffee habit, and very generous cash cards nearly overwhelmed me. Thank you, thank you, thank you.

The litany of sending used at the two final services at which I presided was found by our Council President, Karen Cummings-Larson. Thank-you to everyone who participated either as an individual reader or in unison with the congregation. Your words to me at the end of those services were also a gift. As I move to Springfield, I take with me so many gifts both physical and in memory. Your dedication to serving others, your enjoyment of fellowship times, your dedication to providing education opportunities for children and confirmation students, and your magnificent music go with me. All week long while packing at home, I have been singing songs from both Saturday and Sunday services this past weekend. Thank you for providing those thing throughout my six years with you. (Even during the pandemic we found ways to continue offering those gifts to one another.) You have been a blessing to me and I give thanks to God for you. I carry you in my heart and will be praying for great things ahead for you.

From the bottom of my heart, thank you!

Pastor K

The Late Boomers is a vibrant and welcoming group made up primarily of Baby Boomers—along with friends of all ages who enjoy connecting with this fun-loving and supportive community! The group provides a social outlet for fellowship, friendship, and occasionally Social Ministry endeavors. Over the years, the Boomers have formed deep, lasting relationships. We've celebrated weddings, births, and birthdays together, and traveled near and far as a group. We support one another in times of adversity, lift each other up in prayer, and grieve together when needed.

You don't have to be a Boomer—or even a member of Our Lord's—to join in our activities. And you don't have to attend every event either (we have plenty of travelers among us!). Come to one of our monthly events and join us on Facebook—we'd love to have you with us!

OLLC FAIR TRADE

Coming soon to our Fair Trade Ministry shop, The NEW Summer Catalog. But as many of you know the catalog only has a fraction of what the website (SERRV.org) offers. Just remember friends, if you shop the website, those prices are retail, not the discounted prices you will pay through our ministry. As always, get the Item numbers to me and I'll get your prices right back to you. It usually takes about 7-10 days for the orders to arrive. Please take a good look at both the catalog and the website. There are many, many new items for the summer. Don't forget the shop at church as well. We have a LOT of great gifts in the shop.

Thank you to all the supporters of Our Lord's FAIR TRADE Ministry, thank you so much. Every cent that you spend supports a small farmer or artisan around the world.

Sincerely, Mike Williams,

2025 Synod Assembly Report

CHRIST-CENTERED

The Central/Southern Illinois Synod met on June 5-7 at St. John's Lutheran Church in Bloomington, where God dwelled with us as we conducted business, listened to what God is doing across the synod, and joined together in fellowship.

The Rev. Dr. Dwight Zscheile of Luther Seminary provided three keynote presentations on adapting the church to serve in the 21st century, titled "Church in a Perfect Storm," "Following Jesus in Community," and "Searching for Lydia: Joining God's Mission in Your Context." These sessions were accompanied by three "Spirit Lab" breakout sessions: "Listening to God," "Listening to Each Other," and "Listening to Our Neighbors."

Business: The assembly elected the Rev. Dr. Pete Hinrich to the Consultation Committee; the Rev. Kathi Boland, Cynthia Davis, the Rev. David Glesne, Brian Moulton, and the Rev. Linda Strader to the Committee on Discipline; Cory Newman to Synod Council as member at large; and Victor Harling to Synod Council as young adult member. Marilyn Dichsen and Mark Harms were reelected to Synod Council as youth member and member at large, respectively.

The assembly adopted the proposed budget for 2026 and approved a memorial to the ELCA Churchwide Assembly for a national day of remembrance for Indian boarding schools and a resolution on our synod's financial support plan for our companion synods in Madagascar.

Worship: The assembly Festival Worship was held on the evening of June 5 in the sanctuary of St. John's. Bishop Busboom and his staff were presented with custom stoles and a banner, which were made from pieces of fabric that had been provided by our discipleship communities for the bishop's installation. Liturgical music for the service was written by Pastor Patrick Jenkins; rostered ministers and discipleship communities celebrating anniversary milestones were recognized; and the worship offering brought in more than $14,000 for our companion synods in Madagascar!

Pedal for a Purpose: Led by the Rev. Adam Dichsen, Pedal for a Purpose raised more than $5,000 for campus ministry. In addition to a very wet bike ride on June 4 and a short ride on June 5, an exercise bike was available for people to "ride" for donations.

Fellowship: As always, there was plenty of food and time for fellowship at the assembly. Friday started with a National Donut Day celebration, with donuts generously provided by one of our rostered leaders and his wife in celebration of their 55th wedding anniversary. Boxed lunches were provided as each conference ate together between Spirit Labs. Friday evening featured an "Oktoberfest celebration" of brats, pork chops, sauerkraut, potato salad, and more, followed by a "brat toss" (like a water balloon toss) and accompanied by Al's Pals polka band.

Next year: The 2026 Synod Assembly will be an experimental one, with an online-only business session in June and "Synod days" of learning, worship, and fellowship in each conference in the fall. The assembly will be an in-person event in 2027. A heartfelt thank you goes to St. John's, Bloomington, for welcoming us into their space and the lavish hospitality of their staff and volunteers!

FAITH IN ACTION

Annual Dinner Auction

We invite all to participate in Collinsville Faith in Action's annual Dinner Auction on Friday, July 11 at the Collinsville Gateway Convention Center. This is a fun-filled night with raffles, games, and a full Bella Milano dinner. The Granite City Swing Band will be providing entertainment, and our theme this year is a Country Fair Flair, so we expect cute gingham fashion and maybe some cowboy boots. More information and tickets available online or at the CFiA office. www.fiacollinsville.org and 618-344-8080.

Not up for a night out but still want to support CFiA? Consider donating baked goods for the Tasty Shop section of our silent auction table. Bake your favorite recipe so we can auction it off at our most important fundraiser of the year. We want folks to participate in the way that works best for them, so please give us a call to learn all the choices you have to be a participant this year!

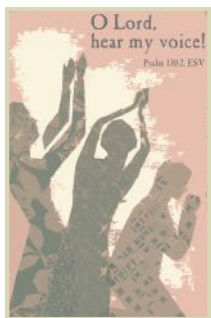

Fall Prevention Class

Afraid of falling? Nearly half of all older adults express a fear of falling. Join Collinsville Faith in Action for a fall-prevention class known as A Matter of Balance. Join us on Thursdays, July 17 - September 4 from 10:00 am - 12:00 pm. This 8-session class will help participants avoid dangerous falls. Additionally, the class will discuss taking steps to reduce our fear of falling, discuss fall-reduction strategies, and help us increase our strength and balance. To register for this free class, call Collinsville Faith in Action at 618-344-8080.

COUNCIL BRIEFS

The Litany of Farewell for Pastor Darla Ann included a reading from Ecclesiastics 3:1-8. The passage begins

There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens

The passage highlights the dynamic nature of life and the inevitability of change. As we all know, there have many changes at Our Lord's and more will follow. I have decided to embrace the change, to focus on the positive, and to use the past month's events/experiences as exemplars of the best of OLLC--

- Jerusalem Marketplace. Thank you for another successful event and reminding us what can be accomplished when everyone pulls together.
- Pastor's Farewell Open House. Everyone appreciated getting together to share memories and to say goodbye to Pastor Darla Ann. Thank you for reminding us of the importance of a thoughtful farewell.
- OLLC Office Angels. These individuals have compiled bulletins, announcements, and newsletters; assisted with all printing; updated the church registry; sorted mail; prepared mailings; and answered phones. Thank you for helping us share God's word.
- Life Center Workday. Thank you to everyone that assisted with the work on the Life Center, you reminded us that working together builds a sense of community and belonging.

Summer is typically a period to slow down and recharge. At OLLC, it seems as if we have not slowed down, we are just getting started!

During the June council meeting, Pastor Amy Zietlow, Assistant to the Bishop for Transformational Leadership, from the Synod office met with us to explain the call process for a new pastor. There are many steps involved and each step involves time but Pastor Amy reminded us that she will be with us during the entire process. The next step includes the congregation participating in "Discover and Invite" a discernment process to tell the story of Our Lord's Lutheran. Telling OUR story is critical and hearing the voices of the entire congregation will be necessary. If you are interested in reading about the Call Process go to the synod website; the information can be found at <https://www.csis-elca.org/congregations/call-process/>.

As OLLC steps into this new chapter, may we be blessed with the grace to let go of what was, and embrace what is to come. May we find new opportunities, new joys, and new growth in the midst of change, knowing that God is with us always.

Yours in Christ,
Karen Cummings-Larson
